7. The welfare, protection and safety of pupils

The King's school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. The successful applicant will be required to undertake an enhanced disclosure from the DBS. A copy of the school's Child Protection policy is included with the application form. As part of our selection process shortlisted candidates should expect us to seek to clarify any anomalies or discrepancies in the information provided by them or arising from their references. The interview process will explore candidates' suitability for working with children and their previous experience in such roles.

CHILDREN ACT, 1989

The Children Act, 1989 places a statutory obligation on schools to safeguard and promote the welfare of children attending them. Accordingly, the Governors of The King's School require all new appointees to provide the following information .

Has the Secretary of State for Education ever issued you with a personal warning or caused your name to be included on List 99 which names those who may not be employed in schools?

YES / NO (Please delete as appropriate)

REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT, 1974

The post for which you are applying involves substantial opportunity of access to children. It is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. You are therefore required to declare any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not "protected" as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013).

A conviction is "protected" if:-

- If does not relate to a "listed offence", such as violent and sexual offences
- No custodial sentence was imposed
- The individual has no other convictions
- It was received by a person aged under 18 at the time of the conviction and five and a half years or more have elapsed
- It was received by a person aged 18 or over at the time of the conviction and 11 years or more have elapsed.

A caution is a "protected caution" if:

- It does not relate to a listed offence
- It was given to a person aged under 18 at the time of the caution and two years or more have elapsed.
- It was given to a person aged 18 or over at the time of the caution and six years or more have elapsed.

You should refer to the Disclosure and Barring Service website for full information on which offences may be "listed" for these purposes.

You should be aware that the School will institute its own checks with the Disclosure and Barring Service and DfES. Please submit information in confidence, enclosing details in a separate sealed envelope which will be seen only by the Headmaster. Failure to declare a conviction may disqualify you from appointment or result in summary dismissal if a discrepancy comes to light.

I have nothing to declare

(Please delete one of the statements as appropriate.)

I enclose a confidential statement

I hereby certify that the statements on this form are correct and that no material information is omitted.
