SPECIMEN PAPER

ENGLISH

Time allowed:  1 hour

• There are 2 sections. Look at the marks awarded.
  ➢ 25 marks for Section A – Reading skills
  ➢ 25 marks for Section B – Writing section

• You should try and spend 30 minutes on each section

• Section A
  ➢ Read through both the extracts - the opening to the story and the poem.
  ➢ Now read them both through again, this time more carefully. You may write on the texts.

• Section B
  ➢ Make sure that you think and plan your answer before writing

Do not open this paper until you are told to do so.
Read EXTRACT 1 – the opening to the novel ‘Great Expectations’ by Charles Dickens

1) What impression did Pip get of his father from the tombstone?
   (1 mark)

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

2) What happened to Pip’s five brothers?
   (1 mark)

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

3) ‘and that the distant savage lair from which the wind was rushing, was the sea’ (line 36)
   What technique is Dickens using here and what is the effect on the reader?
   (2 marks)

Technique:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
4) ‘and the low leaden line beyond was the river’ (line 35)

What technique is Dickens using here and what is the effect on the reader?
(2 marks)

Technique:

____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

5) At the start of this passage we find out that Pip’s family are dead. How does Dickens create sympathy for the boy Pip?

Use words and phrases from the extract to support your answer.
(6 marks)

____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
6) What does the parent do in response to the child’s accident?

(2 marks)

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

7) Why does the poet think that ‘Bed’ is a curious name for a patch of nettles? (line 2)

(1 mark)

________________________________________________________________________

8) The poet creates a sense of pain for the reader by using images associated with battle to describe the nettles. Find and copy two examples from the poem that suggest this feeling and for each one say how.

(4 marks)

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
9) Think about how the parent reflects on the child’s experience. What is Vernon Scannell saying about growing up?

Use words and phrases from the poem to support your ideas.

(6 marks)
Before you start writing make sure that you PLAN your writing carefully.

Write approximately ONE side, but you can write more if you wish.

Think carefully about the words you choose so that you interest your reader.

Take time to check that you have used capital letters, varied punctuation and paragraphs.

TASK

Look again at Extract 1. Imagine the rest of the novel has been lost over time.

You have been asked to continue the story.

- Make sure you write in the first person and try to include some brief dialogue.
- There is no need to bring the story to an ending.
- Try to include both action and description in your writing.

Use this box for your planning